18 Q. Do you know whether or not Alfa

21 A. Yes. I know they have tried to

23 Q. And do you know whether or not

2 A. I think they have, yes.

3 Q. And have they also written to the

5 A. Yes. That's right.

9 A. That's right.

10 Q. Can you think of any legitimate

13 A. No. It's part of the same game
14 they are seeking.

Telenor Mobile Communications AS v. Storm LLC

Dear Messrs. Feinberg, Craig and Jentes:

I write to bring to the Panel's attention two new Ukrainian judicial decisions obtained by Storm LLC ("Storm") over the holidays, which Telenor Mobile Communications AS ("Telenor Mobile") only learned of last week.

1. On December 28, 2006, in response to a petition filed by Storm on November 15, 2006, the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine (the "HCC") issued a decision further clarifying its ruling of December 22, 2005 in Case No. 46/501, Storm v. Closed Joint Stock Company "Kyivstar G.S.M." and Telenor Mobile. A copy of that decision (the "December 28, 2006 Decision"), together with a certified English translation thereof, is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Consistent with the other actions and proceedings commenced by Storm in Ukraine to date, neither Telenor Mobile nor Kyivstar received notice of Storm's petition or the HCC's consideration of the petition, nor were either of them given the opportunity to present their views to the HCC, prior to the HCC's issuance of the December 28, 2006 Decision.

The December 28, 2006 Decision purports to “clarify” the HCC’s ruling of December 22, 2005 (the “December 22, 2005 Ruling”) by stating that “[t]he legal entity elected as a shareholder to the board of a joint stock company . . . may participate in the proceedings of the supervisory board, as represented by its authorized representative (representatives) . Thus, in the event of election of the CJSC “Kyivstar G.S.M.” shareholders (Telenor and Storm) to the supervisory board, they will have one vote each, respectively, regardless of the number of persons representing them on the Board (supervisory board).” Neither the December 28, 2006 Decision nor the December 22, 2005 Ruling itself addresses the issue of how the Kyivstar Board should be restructured to comply with the December 22, 2005 Ruling, nor does either address the role of Kyivstar’s shareholders, other than Telenor Mobile and Storm.¹ Telenor Mobile’s Amended Statement of Claim requests that the Panel issue an award compelling Storm to attend a meeting of Kyivstar shareholders and vote to approve an amendment to Kyivstar’s charter that would permit Telenor Mobile and its four affiliates which are Kyivstar shareholders, and Storm and three of its affiliates, each to appoint a representative to the Kyivstar Board, thereby preserving the five – four composition of the Kyivstar Board mandated by Section 2.01(b)(ii) of the Shareholders Agreement. As will be set out in detail in Telenor Mobile’s proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, nothing in the December 22, 2005 Ruling or the December 28, 2006 Decision would preclude Telenor Mobile’s request to the Panel.²

2. On December 29, 2006, in response to a petition filed by Storm without notice to Kyivstar or Telenor Mobile, the Kyiv City Commercial Court issued an injunction (the “December 29, 2006 Injunction”) purporting to prohibit Kyivstar, Limited Liability Company “Ernst & Young Audit Services”, Limited Liability Company “Ernst & Young” (collectively, “E&Y”) and “any of their authorized persons, officers and shareholders of [Kyivstar]” from, among other things, taking any action aimed at performance of any contracts or agreements the subject matter of which is the provision of audit services for Kyivstar, including signing and submitting any reports or letters. A copy of the December 29, 2006 Injunction, together with a certified English translation thereof, is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

The December 29, 2006 Injunction purports to take effect immediately. In fact, Storm obtained from the State Enforcement Service of Ukraine an order dated December 29, 2006 (the “Enforcement Order”) requiring Kyivstar and E&Y to comply with the December 29, 2006

¹In addition to Telenor Mobile, Telenor Ukraina I AS, Telenor Ukraina II AS, Telenor Ukraina III AS and Telenor Ukraina IV AS are each shareholders of Kyivstar, and each is eligible to serve as director.

² Neither the December 22, 2005 Ruling nor the December 28, 2006 Decision even mentions the governance provisions of the Shareholders Agreement, let alone rule on them.

Injunction immediately. A copy of the Enforcement Order, together with a certified English translation thereof, is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

The purported basis for the December 29, 2006 Injunction is Storm's claim that Kyivstar's contracts with E&Y relating to the provision of audit services were not approved by the Kyivstar Board. The December 29, 2006 Injunction fails to address the fact that the reason those contracts were not approved by the Kyivstar Board is that Storm's nominees have, in violation of Storm's obligations under Section 2.05(b) of the Shareholders Agreement, deliberately failed to attend meetings of the Kyivstar Board since March 18, 2005.

Under Section 2.05(b) of the Shareholders Agreement, Storm undertook "to comply with its obligations under [the Shareholders Agreement]" and "to act in a good faith and constructive manner such as to give effect to the provisions of this Agreement" In addition to the evident violation of that general standard by Storm's attack on Kyivstar's ability to obtain audited financials, Storm's conduct violates Section 8.07 of the Shareholders Agreement, which provides as follows:

[N]o Shareholder shall take any action or engage in any conduct ... the direct or indirect consequence of which would be to prevent the Company from having access to the United States or other international capital markets, or from undertaking an IPO.

Without audited financial statements, Kyivstar cannot continue to access the international capital markets, whether through the issuance of Eurobonds or otherwise.³ Storm's filing of the petition that led to the December 29, 2006 Injunction and the Enforcement Order is a direct violation of Sections 2.05(b) and 8.07 of the Shareholders Agreement.

³ It appears that at least part of Storm's purpose in seeking the December 29, 2006 Decision and the Enforcement Order is to frustrate Telenor ASA's efforts to comply with its obligations under United States securities laws, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. In that regard, as the Panel will recall from Mr. Moland's testimony, Storm has repeatedly used the December 22, 2005 Ruling to attack the consolidation of Kyivstar's financial results by Telenor ASA ("Telenor") in Telenor's financial statements, in a transparent effort to pressure Telenor by harming its standing with investors and regulators.

Accordingly, on behalf of Telenor Mobile, we hereby request that the Panel include in any award that it renders:

- (a) a declaration that Storm is in breach of the Shareholders Agreement for seeking the December 29, 2006 Injunction and the Enforcement Order;
- (b) an injunction against Storm, its affiliates and anyone acting in concert with Storm or its affiliates from seeking to enforce the December 29, 2006 Injunction or the Enforcement Order; and
- (c) a requirement that Storm take all actions necessary to cause the December 29, 2006 Injunction and the Enforcement Order to be withdrawn in their entirety.

Respectfully,

Robert L. Sills

HIGHER COMMERCIAL COURT OF UKRAINE

DECREE

December 28, 2006

Case No. 46/501

The Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine represented by a panel of judges composed of:

Presiding Judge S.R. Shevchuk

Judges S.S. Samusenko
T.P. Kozyr

having reviewed a petition by Limited Liability Company "Storm"

re clarification of the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005

In case No. 46/501 upon a claim by

Limited Liability Company "Storm" (LLC "Storm")

against

Closed Joint Stock Company "Kyivstar G.S.M." (CJSC
"Kyivstar G.S.M.")

Telenor Mobile Communications AS ("Telenor")

re

invalidating charter provisions

has established that:

LLC "Storm" filed with the Kyiv City Commercial Court a claim against CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." and Telenor Mobile Communications AS, requesting the court to invalidate the provisions of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." Charter of April 27, 2004, specifically Section 9.1 of Article 9 and Section 10.3 of Article 10 where it concerns the procedure for election of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." President, as well as to invalidate the resolutions of the Shareholders Meetings of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." where they concern the election of the Board members – Section 6 of Minutes No. 30 of April 27, 2004 and Section 2 of Minutes No. 32 of January 11, 2005.

The claim was dismissed in its entirety by a decision issued by the Kyiv City Commercial Court on October 12, 2005.

The decision of the local commercial court was affirmed by a ruling issued by the Kyiv Commercial Court of Appeals on November 11, 2005.

The ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005 reversed the decision by the Kyiv City Commercial Court of October 12, 2005 and the ruling by the Kyiv Commercial Court of Appeals of November 11, 2005 and granted the claim filed by LLC "Storm".

The decree issued by the Supreme Court of February 16, 2005 denied the commencement of cassation review of the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005, petitioned for by Telenor Mobile Communications AS.

The ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on June 27, 2006 granted the petition of Telenor Mobile Communications AS, requesting review of the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005 based on newly discovered circumstances, and reversed the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005 in case No. 46/501.

The ruling issued by the Supreme Court of Ukraine on October 3, 2006 granted the cassation appeal by LLC "Storm", reversed the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on June 27, 2006, and affirmed the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005.

The ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005 granted the claim filed by LLC "Storm". [The ruling] invalidated the provisions of Section 9.1 of Article 9 of the Charter of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M."; invalidated the decisions of the General Meetings of Shareholders of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." where they concerned the election of Board members (Section 6 of Minutes No. 30 of April 27, 2004; Section 2 of Minutes No. 32 of January 11, 2005). [The ruling] Obligated the shareholders of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M.", LLC "Storm", Telenor Mobile Communications AS to bring the contents of the Charter in conformity with the requirements of applicable Ukrainian laws. [The ruling] Invalidated the provisions of Section 10.3 of Article 10 of the CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." Charter where they read, "The President shall be nominated by Telenor, and each Shareholder shall cause the Directors nominated by such Shareholder to vote in favor of a nominee for a position of President nominated by Telenor."

~~On November 15, 2006, the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine received a petition of LLC "Storm" whereby it requested to clarify ruling issued by Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine No. 46/501 on December 22, 2005, considering the decree issued by the HCCU of October 20, 2006 on correction of the typographical errors and clarification of the ruling in case No. 46/501 issued by Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005.~~

~~The petitioner is asking whether all of the provisions of Section 9.1 of Article 9 of the Charter of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." set forth in the Charter restatement of April 27, 2004 are null and void, including those governing the election procedure and the number of representatives of each shareholder (Telenor and Storm) on the supervisory board (Board) of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M."? May the Parties be governed in their actions by the provisions of Section 9.1 of Article 9 of the Charter of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." set forth in the Charter restatement of April 27, 2004 until the moment when the same are deleted from the text of the Charter at the General Meeting of Shareholders? What number of votes does each of the shareholders of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." (Telenor and Storm) have if they are elected to the supervisory board? Which of the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." out of those set forth in Section 6 of Minutes No. 30 of April 27, 2004 remain effective, considering the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine ruling in case No. 46/501?~~

Considering the foregoing and in compliance with Articles 86, 89, and 111-5 of the Code of Commercial Procedure of Ukraine, [the court]

HAS RULED TO:

Provide a clarification of the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005 in case 46/501.

As appears from the operative part of the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005 in case No. 46/501, the court invalidated the provisions of Section 9.1 of Article 9 of the Charter of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M."

Therefore, the panel of judges of the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine clarifies that the provisions of Section 9.1 of Article 9 of the CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." Charter, set forth in the Charter restatement of April 27, 2004, were invalidated in their entirety without any exceptions, in particular the provisions governing the election procedure and the number of representatives of each shareholder (Telenor and Storm) on the supervisory board (Board) of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." were invalidated.

According to Article 216 of the Civil Code of Ukraine, an invalid transaction does not create any legal consequences, other than those related to its invalidity. Since the court invalidated Section 9.1 of Article 9 of the CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." Charter in its entirety, the parties (Telenor and Storm) may not be governed in their actions by its provisions.

When issuing the ruling of December 22, 2005 in case No. 46/501, the court established the following: according to Article 46 of the Law of Ukraine "On Business Associations", a joint stock company may establish, from among its shareholders, a board of shareholders (supervisory board), which represents the shareholders in between the general meetings and supervises and regulates the operations of the management board within the authority determined in the charter. The law does not provide for any restrictions of a shareholder's right to participate in the Board's proceedings and issuance of resolutions within its authority. According to the law, shareholders have equal rights to participate in managing the company, and the equality of shareholders' rights in respect of influence on the company's activity is not upheld solely when issuing resolutions at the general meetings of shareholders based on the "one share – one vote" principle (Article 44 of the Law of Ukraine "On Business Associations").

Pursuant to the CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." Charter, the shareholders, namely, the claimant and respondent-2 in case No. 46/501, are members of the Board (supervisory board). According to Clarification of the State Securities and Stock Market Commission No. 7 of November 26, 2002 "On Establishing a Board of a Joint Stock Company (Supervisory Board) from among the Shareholders if a Legal Entity is a Shareholder", a legal entity, which is a shareholder, may be elected to the board of a joint stock company (supervisory board). The legal entity elected as a shareholder to the board of a joint stock company (supervisory board) may participate in the proceedings of the supervisory board, as represented by its authorized representative (representatives). Thus, in the event of election of the CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." shareholders (Telenor and Storm) to the supervisory board, they will have one vote each, respectively, regardless of the number of persons representing them on the Board (supervisory board).

As appears from the operative part of the ruling issued by the Higher Commercial Court of Ukraine on December 22, 2005 in case No. 46/501, the court invalidated the resolutions issued by the meeting of shareholders of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." where they concern the election of the Board members (Section 6 of Minutes No. 30 of April 27, 2004).

From the operative part of the resolution on Section 6 of the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders of CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." dated April 27, 2004 (Minutes No. 30), it appears that the meeting decided on the issues of removal and election of the company's Board members. Thus, since the court invalidated the resolutions issued by the meeting where they concern the election of the CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." Board members, the court did not invalidate the resolutions where they concern the removal of the CJSC "Kyivstar G.S.M." Board members, and they remain effective.

Ем.», ТОВ «Сторм», Теленор Мобайл Ком'юнікейшинз АС привести зміст Статуту у відповідність з вимогами чинного законодавства України. Визнано недійсним положення п. 10.3. ст. 10 Статуту ЗАТ «Київстар Дж. Ес. Ем.» в частині "Кандидата на посаду Президента пропонує Теленор і кожний Акціонер забезпечує, щоб Директорії, призначені таким акціонером, проголосували за обрання такого кандидата, запропонованого Теленором, на посаду Президента».

15 листопада 2006 року до Вищого господарського суду України надійшла заява ТОВ «Сторм» про роз'яснення постанови Вищого господарського суду України від 22 грудня 2005 року №46/501 з урахуванням ухвали ВГСУ від 20.10.2006 року про виправлення опісок та роз'яснення постанови від 22 грудня 2005 року Вищого господарського суду України у справі №46/501.

Заявник ставить питання чи є недійсними всі положення п.9.1 ст.9 Статуту ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем“, викладені в новій редакції Статуту від 27.04.2004 року, в тому числі ті, що регулюють порядок обрання та кількісного складу представників від кожного з акціонерів (Теленора та Сторма) в спостережній раді (Раді) ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем“? Чи можуть Сторони керуватись в своїх діях положеннями п.9.1 ст.9 Статуту ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем“, викладеними в новій редакції Статуту від 27.04.2004 року, до моменту їх виключення з тексту Статуту на загальних зборах акціонерів? Яка кількість голосів належить кожному з акціонерів ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем“ (Теленор та Сторм) у випадку їх обрання до складу спостережної ради? Які рішення з викладених в п.6 Протоколу № 30 від 27.04.2004 року рішень Загальних зборів акціонерів ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем.“ залишилися чинними з урахуванням постанови Вищого господарського суду України у справі №46/501?

Враховуючи викладене та керуючись ст. ст. 86, 89, 111-5 Господарського процесуального кодексу України,

УХВАЛИВ:

Роз'яснити постанову Вищого господарського суду України від 22.12.2005 року у справі 46/501.

Як вбачається з резолютивної частини Постанови Вищого господарського суду України від 22.12.2005 р. у справі 46/501 судом було визнано недійсним положення п.9.1. ст.9 Статуту ЗАТ "Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем"

Отже, колегія суддів Вищого господарського суду України роз'яснює, що положення п.9.1. ст.9 Статуту ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем”, що викладені в новій редакції Статуту від 27.04.2004 року, визнано недійсним в повному обсязі без будь-яких виключень, в тому числі визнано недійсними положення, що регулюють порядок обрання та кількісний склад представників від кожного з акціонерів (Теленора та Сторма) в спостережній раді (Раді) ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем.”

У відповідності до ст. 216 Цивільного кодексу України недійсний правочин не створює юридичних наслідків, крім тих, що пов'язані з його недійсністю. Оскільки п.9.1 ст.9 Статуту ЗАТ „Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем” визнаний судом недійсним в повному обсязі, сторони (Теленор та Сторм) не можуть керуватись в своїх діях його положеннями.

При прийнятті постанови від 22.12.2005 р. у справі № 46/501 судом було встановлено наступне: У відповідності до ст. 46 Закону України “Про господарські товариства” в акціонерному товаристві з числа акціонерів може створюватися рада акціонерів (спостережна рада), яка представляє інтереси акціонерів у період між проведенням загальних зборів і у межах компетенції, визначеної статутом, контролює і регулює діяльність правління. Законом не передбачено обмеження прав акціонера щодо участі у роботі Ради та прийнятті рішень, віднесених до її компетенції. Відповідно до законодавства акціонери мають однакові права щодо участі в управлінні товариством, і лише при прийнятті рішень на загальних зборах акціонерів при застосуванні принципу “одна акція – один голос” (ст. 44 Закону України “Про господарські товариства”) рівність прав акціонерів щодо впливу на діяльність товариства не дотримується.

Відповідно до Статуту ЗАТ "Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем" членами Ради (спостережної ради) товариства є акціонери, а саме, позивач та відповідач-2 у справі № 46/501. Згідно з роз'ясненням Державної комісії з цінних паперів та фондового ринку від 26 листопада 2002 року №7 “Щодо створення ради акціонерного товариства (спостережної ради) з числа акціонерів у разі, якщо акціонером є юридична особа”, юридична особа, яка є акціонером, може бути обраною до ради акціонерного товариства (спостережної ради). Юридична особа, обрана як акціонер до складу ради акціонерного товариства (спостережної ради), може брати участь у роботі спостережної ради через свого уповноваженого представника (представників). Отже, у випадку обрання акціонерів ЗАТ "Київстар Дж.Ес.Ем" (Теленор та Сторм) до складу спостережної ради вони матимуть кожен по одному голосу відповідно, незалежно від кількості осіб, що представлятимуть їх інтереси в роботі Ради (спостережної ради).

Як вбачається з резолютивної частини Постанови Вищого господарського суду України від 22.12.2005 р. у справі 46/501, судом було визнано недійсними

рішення зборів акціонерів ЗАТ «Київстар Дж. Ес. Ем.» в частині обрання членів Ради (п. 6 Протоколу №30 від 27 квітня 2004 року).

З резолютивної частини рішення пункту 6 порядку денного загальних зборів акціонерів ЗАТ "Київстар Дж. Ес. Ем" від 27 квітня 2004 року (протокол №30) вбачається, що цими зборами були вирішені питання про звільнення та обрання членів Ради товариства. Таким чином, оскільки судом було визнано недійсними рішення зборів в частині обрання членів Ради ЗАТ "Київстар Дж. Ес. Ем.", то рішення в частині звільнення членів Ради ЗАТ "Київстар Дж. Ес. Ем." не визнавались судом недійсними і залишаються чинними.

MERITS OF THE CASE:

Limited Liability Company "Storm" brought for consideration of the Kyiv City Commercial Court the claim against Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M."; Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services"; Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young", seeking to recognize as null and void the Agreement on Provision of Professional Services No. 9331 dated January 6, 2006, entered into between Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services" and Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young", as from the time of its signing; to recognize as null and void the Agreement on Provision of Professional Services No. 12352 dated May 3, 2006, entered into between Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." and Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young", as from the time of its signing; to recognize as unlawful the actions taken by Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services" and Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" where they concern entering into and performing the Agreement on Provision of Professional Services No. 9331 dated January 6, 2006; to recognize as unlawful the actions taken by Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." and Limited

Liability Company "Ernst & Young" where they concern entering into and performing the Agreement on Provision of Professional Services No. 12352 dated May 3, 2006; to recognize as unlawful the appointment of Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services" and Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" as auditors of Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." for the year 2005; to compel Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." and Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" to return to one another the documents, data, information, funds and everything else obtained under the Agreement on Provision of Professional Services No. 12352 dated May 3, 2006 and in the course of its performance; to compel Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", as represented by its competent body – the Board, to appoint an auditor for the year 2005; to compel Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", as represented by its competent body – the Board, to appoint an auditor for the year 2006; to compel Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." to execute audit agreements with the auditors and to notify the tax inspectorate of their execution after the Board appoints such auditors for the years 2005 and 2006.

By its decree dated December 28, 2006, the Kyiv City Commercial Court commenced proceedings in the case, and consideration of the case is scheduled for January 22, 2007.

The claimant has also brought a petition to apply injunctive relief to secure the claim, whereby the latter requested to enjoin, until resolution of the case per se, Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services", Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" and any of their authorized persons, officers and shareholders of CJSC "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", from taking any actions aimed at performance of any contracts (agreements), the subject matter of which consists in providing (obtaining) audit services, including to enjoin from providing and receiving any information on financial and commercial activity of Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", including underlying accounting documents, reports and information, from signing and submitting any reports; letters; to enjoin, until resolution of the case per se, Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services", Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" and any of their authorized persons, officers and shareholders of CJSC "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", from using in any way the financial statements, reports, documents or information already obtained from one another; to enjoin, until resolution of the case per se, Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." from entering into any transactions (contracts, agreements), the subject matter of which consists in providing (obtaining) audit services.

The petition is substantiated with the fact that the actions taken by the respondents, particularly regarding the performance of the disputed agreements (that are sought to be recognized as null and void), and the respondents' failing to take actions required by the law jeopardize the possibility for the claimant to exercise its rights as a shareholder of respondent 1. Under the disputed agreements, the respondents should take certain actions that render any subsequent restitution impossible since the agreements in question concern provision of services that cannot be restituted. In addition, the performance of the disputed agreements involves illegal provision of information classified as commercial secret by respondent 1 to respondents 2 and 3.

Pursuant to Article 66 of the Commercial Procedural Code of Ukraine, upon petition of a party, public prosecutor or its deputy who brought a claim, or upon its own initiative, the commercial court has the right to apply injunctive relief to secure the claim. Applying injunctive relief is allowed in any stage of the proceeding if non-application of such relief may complicate the enforcement of a commercial court decision or render it impossible.

Under Article 67 of the Code of Commercial Procedure of Ukraine, a claim is secured by: seizure of property or money owned by a respondent; enjoining a respondent from taking certain actions; enjoining other persons from taking actions relating to the subject matter of the dispute; suspending collection on the basis of an enforcement document or other document under which collection is performed without recourse.

Injunctive relief to secure a claim is applied as an instrument for preventing possible infringements on property rights or legitimate interests of a legal entity or an individual.

Upon review of the statement of claim materials and arguments of the claimant set forth in its petition for injunctive relief, the court has come to a conclusion that they are well-grounded and, therefore, there are reasons to apply injunctive relief to secure the claim since non-application of injunctive relief may complicate the enforcement of a court decision on the case or render it impossible, if the relief sought is granted.

Based on Articles 66, 67 and 86 of the Code of Commercial Procedure of Ukraine, the court

RULED TO:

1. Grant the petition of Limited Liability Company "Storm" on applying injunctive relief.

2. Enjoin, until resolution of the case per se, Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." (51 Chervonozoryany Prospect, Kyiv, 03110; code 21673832); Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services" (19a, Khreshchatyk St., Kyiv, 01001; code 33306921) and Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" (19a, Khreshchatyk St., Kyiv, 01001; code 33306958) and any of their authorized persons, officers and shareholders of CJSC "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", from taking any actions aimed at performance of any contracts (agreements), the subject matter of which consists in providing (obtaining) audit services, including to enjoin from providing and receiving any information on financial and commercial activity of Closed Joint Stock Company "Kyivstar G.S.M.", including underlying accounting documents, reports and information, from signing and submitting any reports; letters.

3. Enjoin, until resolution of the case per se, Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." (51 Chervonozoryany Prospect, Kyiv, 03110; code 21673832); Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services" (19a, Khreshchatyk St., Kyiv, 01001; code 33306921) and Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" (19a, Khreshchatyk St., Kyiv, 01001; code 33306958) and any of their authorized persons, officers and shareholders of CJSC "KYIVSTAR G.S.M.", from using in any way the financial statements, reports, documents or information already obtained from one another.

4. Enjoin, until resolution of the case per se, Closed Joint Stock Company "KYIVSTAR G.S.M." (51 Chervonozoryany Prospect, Kyiv, 03110; code 21673832) from entering into any transactions (contracts, agreements), the subject matter of which consists in providing (obtaining) audit services.

The Decree becomes legally effective as from the time of its adoption and is binding.

Ухвалою Господарського суду міста Києва від 28.12.2006 було порушено провадження у справі, розгляд справи призначено на 22.01.2007.

Від позивача надійшла також заява про вжиття заходів забезпечення позову, відповідно до якої останній просив заборонити до вирішення справи по суті Закритому акціонерному товариству "КІЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем.", Товариству з обмеженою відповідальністю "Ернст енд Янг Аудиторські Послуги", Товариству з обмеженою відповідальністю "Ернст енд Янг" та будь-яким уповноваженим ними особам, посадовим особам, акціонерам ЗАТ "КІЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем.", вчиняти будь-які дії по виконанню будь-яких договорів (угод) предметом яких є надання (отримання) аудиторських послуг, в тому числі заборонити надавати та отримувати будь-яку інформацію про фінансово-господарську діяльність Закритого акціонерного товариства "КІЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем.", в тому числі первинні бухгалтерські документи, звіти, відомості, підписувати та подавати будь-які звіти; листи; заборонити до вирішення справи по суті Закритому акціонерному товариству "КІЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем.", Товариству з обмеженою відповідальністю "Ернст енд Янг Аудиторські Послуги". Товариству з обмеженою відповідальністю "Ернст енд Янг" та будь-яким уповноваженим ними особам, посадовим особам, акціонерам Закритого акціонерного товариства "КІЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем." використовувати вже отримані одне від одного фінансову звітність, звіти, документи, відомості в будь-який спосіб; заборонити до вирішення справи по суті Закритому акціонерному товариству "КІЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем." укладати будь-які правочини (договори, угоди) предметом яких є надання (отримання) аудиторських послуг.

Заяву обґрунтовано тим, що дії відповідачів, зокрема щодо виконання спірних договорів (про визнання яких недійсними йдеться), та не вчинення відповідачами дій, необхідність вчинення яких встановлена законодавством, ставить під загрозу можливість реалізації позивачем своїх прав, як акціонера відповідача 1. Спірні договори передбачають необхідність виконання Відповідачами певних дій, які унеможливають наступну реституцію, адже йдеться про договори про надання послуг, повернення яких неможливе. Крім того, виконання спірних договорів передбачає незаконне надання відповідачем 1 відповідачам 2 та 3 інформації, яка становить комерційну таємницю.

Відповідно до приписів статті 66 ГПК України господарський суд за заявою сторони, прокурора чи його заступника, який подав позов, або з своєї ініціативи має право вжити заходів до забезпечення позову. Забезпечення позову допускається в будь-якій стадії провадження у справі, якщо невжиття таких заходів може утруднити чи зробити неможливим виконання рішення господарського суду.

Згідно з статтею 67 ГПК України позов забезпечується: накладанням арешту на майно або грошові суми, що належать відповідачеві; заборорою відповідачеві вчиняти певні дії; заборорою іншим особам вчиняти дії, що стосуються предмета спору; зупиненням стягнення на підставі виконавчого документа або іншого документа, за яким стягнення здійснюється у безспірному порядку.

Забезпечення позову застосовується як засіб запобігання можливим порушенням майнових прав чи охоронюваних законом інтересів юридичної або фізичної особи.

Дослідивши матеріали позовної заяви і доводи позивача, викладені у заяві про заходів до забезпечення позову, суд дійшов до висновку про їх достатню обґрунтованість, у зв'язку з чим є підстави для вжиття заходів по забезпеченню позову, оскільки невжиття заходів по забезпеченню позову, може утруднити або унеможливити виконання, у випадку задоволення позовних вимог, судового рішення по справі.

Керуючись ст. ст. 66, 67, 86 ГПК України, суд -

УХВАЛИВ:

1. Заяву Товариства з обмеженою відповідальністю «Сторм» про забезпечення позову задовольнити.

2. Заборонити до вирішення справи по суті Закритому акціонерному товариству «КИЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем.» (03110, м. Ем.», вчиняти будь-які дії по виконанню будь-яких договорів (угод) предметом яких є надання (отримання) аудиторських послуг, в тому числі заборонити надавати та отримувати будь-яку інформацію про фінансово-господарську діяльність Закритого акціонерного товариства «КИЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем.», в тому числі первинні бухгалтерські документи, звіти, відомості, підписувати та подавати будь-які звіти; листи.

3. Заборонити до вирішення справи по суті Закритому акціонерному товариству "КИЇВСТАР Дж. Ес. Ем." (03110, м. Ухвала набирає законної сили з моменту її прийняття і є обов'язковою для її виконання.

RE: TELENOR MOBILE COMMUNICATIONS AS V. STORM LLC

Gentlemen:

We write in response to Telenor Mobile's letter of January 16, 2007.

At the outset, we wish to emphasize that the purpose of this letter is not to discuss the merits of the arbitration. The December 1, 2006 injunction from the Ukrainian court is still in place and it continues to impose limitations on Storm's ability to participate in the arbitration. Instead, we are writing because Telenor Mobile has improperly attempted, in the January 16 letter, to bring clearly non-arbitrable issues before the Tribunal.

We do not address the first part of the January 16 letter, which relates to the December 22, 2005 Order that has come up in the parties' prior submissions. The December 1, 2006 injunction prevents us from doing so. Instead, we will rest on the record before the Tribunal.

The balance of the January 16 letter, however, discusses a completely separate Ukrainian action brought by Storm against Kyivstar and two Ernst & Young entities (collectively, "E & Y") involving 2006 agreements for the provision of professional services by E & Y. Those contracts have no connection to this arbitration whatsoever. As Telenor Mobile notes, Storm's action and the resulting preliminary injunction are based on an assertion that the Kyivstar board did not approve the contracts. (Jan. 16 Letter at 3.) Telenor Mobile ignores the fact that the merits of the case are being considered by the Kyiv City Commercial Court. (See Ex. B to Jan. 16 Letter at 2.)¹ Indeed, it is our understanding that Telenor Mobile has sought to intervene in the Ukrainian action and it has stated publicly that it will be asking the Ukrainian higher courts to reverse the injunction. (See enclosed press release dated January 23, 2007.) At a minimum (and without prejudice to Storm's arguments below), the Tribunal should not take any action that would intrude upon the jurisdiction of the Ukrainian courts as they determine the issues. The Tribunal also should not attempt to interfere with the Ukrainian court proceedings while it is still deciding the issue of whether the Shareholders Agreement was validly entered into.²

Telenor Mobile makes two bootstrapping arguments in an effort to bring the E & Y issues before the Tribunal. First, it relies on the "good faith" provisions in Section 2.05(b) of the Shareholders Agreement. Of course, the good faith required of the parties is limited to their obligations under the Shareholders Agreement and it does not govern all Kyivstar-related issues, such as the contracts between Kyivstar and third parties like E & Y. Disputes under those contracts must be resolved in the forum and under the dispute-resolution mechanisms agreed to by those parties; there is no evidence (or any case law cited by Telenor Mobile) to support the notion that the arbitration clause in the Shareholders Agreement is intended to cover agreements involving third-party vendors.

Second, Telenor Mobile claims that the Ukrainian action violates Section 8.07 of the Shareholders Agreement because Kyivstar allegedly "cannot continue to access the international capital markets." (Jan. 16 Letter at 3.) Telenor Mobile has not presented any evidence to support its assertion regarding Kyivstar's future access to financing, the apparent allegation that Storm brought the Ukrainian action in order to prevent Kyivstar from having such access, or the contention that Section 8.07 was intended to be read as broadly as Telenor Mobile claims.

Under the circumstances, Telenor Mobile has not come close to carrying its burden of establishing that the Tribunal should even consider the new matters, let alone grant the sweeping relief that Telenor Mobile seeks in the January 16 letter.

Respectfully,

Pieter Van Tol

¹ It is our understanding that the hearing before the Kyiv City Commercial Court scheduled for January 22, 2007 was adjourned (although the injunction was left in place). We will advise the Tribunal as soon as we are aware of the new date.

² We note that Telenor Mobile has not provided any authority for the proposition that an arbitration tribunal may issue the type of anti-suit injunction requested in the January 16 letter.

Alfa Attempts to Obstruct Kyivstar Audit

(Kyiv/Oslo, 23 January 2007) A Court ruling in Ukraine Monday continued injunctions preventing Ernst & Young from completing its audit of the 2006 financial statements of Kyivstar.

The lawsuit brought by Storm, an affiliate of Alfa/Altimo, claims that Kyivstar lacked Board authority to enter into any agreement with Ernst & Young in relation to the audit. Such approval has not been possible to obtain as Storm for the past two years has boycotted Kyivstar's Board and shareholders meetings, causing such meetings not to be held. A hearing on the merits in Kyiv City Commercial Court was on Monday adjourned before the parties were heard and no new hearing date has been set.

"The lawsuit in itself is absurd. Alfa still refuses to participate in Board and shareholder meetings. Now Alfa is launching legal attacks against Kyivstar on the basis of a situation Alfa has itself created. Telenor will definitely not put up with such tactics and we trust the government of Ukraine and the higher courts of Ukraine to intervene to end this outrage. Telenor is confident that Kyivstar's management will take the necessary steps to secure continued auditing of the company," said Executive Vice President and head of Telenor's operations in Central and East Europe, Jan Edvard Thygesen.

CLAIMANT'S PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Storm to form three such affiliates; those nine entities would then be elected as directors of Kyivstar.⁴⁸ That amendment is fully in compliance with Ukrainian law and the December 22 Order, and will preserve the five to four governance scheme agreed to by Telenor Mobile and Storm in the Shareholder's Agreement.

128. The December 22 Order did not address any aspects of the Shareholders Agreement, nor did it require the nomination of any particular number of shareholders or directors of Kyivstar. Rather that decision, and the recent "clarification" obtained by Storm, simply provided that every director must be a shareholder, and that each shareholder serving as a director will have one vote on the Board. The amendment proposed by Telenor Mobile is fully consistent with that ruling. It is striking that the "compromise" proposed by Storm – which would give three seats to Telenor Mobile, three to Storm, and three to "independents" who, by definition, are not shareholders – flies directly in the face of the rulings obtained by Storm from the Ukrainian courts.

(2) Storm's Recent Actions Against Kyivstar's Outside Auditors Further Demonstrate That Storm Is Not Acting in Good Faith

129. In yet another example of Storm's failure to act in good faith with regard to its responsibilities under the Kyivstar Charter, Storm recently claimed that Kyivstar has appointed Ernst & Young as auditor without Board approval, and thus without proper authorization. Storm proceeded to demand that an agreement to audit should be cancelled and threatened legal action, including removal of Igor Lytovchenko, one of the founders of Kyivstar, from his position as president of the company. Storm has, through Alfa, attacked the right of Telenor to consolidate Kyivstar's results on its books.

⁴⁸ As the December 22 Order states, under Ukrainian law, a corporation or other entity may serve as a director.

130. Storm filed a claim against Limited Liability Company “Ernst & Young Audit Services,” and Limited Liability Company “Ernst & Young” (collectively, “E&Y”) and “any of their authorized persons, officers and shareholders of [Kyivstar]” requesting a hearing, currently set for January 22, and seeking a ruling from the Kyiv City Commercial Court declaring invalid the agreements between Kyivstar and E&Y for audit services.

131. In addition, Storm sought an order prohibiting:

Kyivstar, EYAS, EY, and any persons authorized by them, officers, as well as Kyivstar shareholders from undertaking any actions on fulfillment of any agreements (contracts) aimed at provision (obtaining) of audit services, including prohibition from furnishing and obtaining any information on the financial and business activities of Kyivstar, including the source accounting documents, reports, data; signing and filing of any reports or letters; to prohibit (till the decision on the substance of the case) Kyivstar, EYAS, EY, and any persons authorized by them, officers, as well as Kyivstar shareholders from using [sic] financial statements, reports documents and data already received from each other; to prohibit (till the decision on the substance of the case) Kyivstar from conclusion of any agreements (contracts) for provision (obtaining) of audit services.

See Exhs. 87-88, 203.

132. On December 29, 2006, in response to Storm’s petition, the Kyiv City Commercial Court issued an injunction against Kyivstar, purporting to prohibit Kyivstar and E&Y from taking any action aimed at performance of any contracts or agreements the subject matter of which is the provision of audit services for Kyivstar, including signing and submitting any reports or letters. See Exh. 87.

133. This latest action by Storm was clearly intended to pressure Telenor Mobile to surrender its rights by harming Kyivstar and Telenor, because Telenor is required to consolidate Kyivstar’s results with its own. Without obtaining audited financial statements, Kyivstar cannot continue to access international capital markets, and it may experience substantial difficulty in meeting its obligations under United States securities laws, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. See Exh. 189 at 79: 23 – 80: 8 (describing the consequences of having a capital structure, including not being able to borrow money and not being able to IPO the company).

2. Storm's Argument That Attendance At Board and Shareholders Meetings Is its Right, Not its Obligation, Is Irrelevant

134. Storm's purported expert Peter Magnus asserted in his affidavit that "participation in the Kyivstar Board was Storm's right rather than its obligation" because, under Article 10(a) of the Law on Business Entities, "shareholders shall have the right to participate in the companies' managing bodies as provided for by the Charter." See Exh. 17 at ¶ 24; Exh. 16 at ¶¶ 71; 74. Mr. Magnus makes this same argument with respect to Storm's attendance at shareholders meetings. Id. at ¶35. That argument is nonsensical; while Ukrainian law may not create an affirmative obligation for directors and shareholders to attend board meetings, the express terms of the Shareholders Agreement clearly do exactly that.

135. Under Section 2.01(b) of the Shareholders Agreement, the shareholders must "take all action necessary . . . to (1) ensure the election of such candidates and (2) maintain the membership of the Board." See Exh. 105 at § 2.01(b). Furthermore, under Section 2.05 of the Shareholders Agreement, Storm must act "in a good faith and constructive manner such as to give effect to the provisions of this Agreement, including, without limitation, through participating in and voting at the GMS [General Meeting of Shareholders] and the Board." See Exh. 105 at § 2.05 (emphasis added).

136. Storm clearly acted in contravention of its obligations under Sections 2.01 and 2.05 of the Shareholders Agreement by failing to attend Kyivstar Board and shareholders meetings. The parties expressly made attendance at the meetings an affirmative obligation

I note that the underlying order is the same one that is the subject of the anti-suit injunction entered by Judge Lynch, and was also the basis for Storm's unsuccessful motion for a stay of proceedings before this Panel. Telenor Mobile Communications AS v. Storm LLC

Dear Messrs. Feinberg, Craig and Jentes:

As the Panel will recall, by letter dated January 16, 2007, Telenor Mobile brought to the Panel's attention an injunction obtained by Storm in the Kyiv City Commercial Court on December 29, 2006 purporting to prohibit Closed Joint Stock Company "Kyivstar G.S.M." ("Kyivstar"), Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young Audit Services", Limited Liability Company "Ernst & Young" (collectively, "E&Y") and "any of their authorized persons, officers and shareholders of [Kyivstar]" from, among other things, taking any action aimed at performance of any contracts or agreements the subject matter of which is the provision of audit services for Kyivstar. In that letter, we also requested that the Panel address in any award it renders the violations of the Shareholders Agreement that occurred when Storm sought that injunction.¹ For purposes of this letter, we refer to that action as the "First E&Y Case."

On behalf of Claimant Telenor Mobile Communications AS ("Telenor Mobile"), I write today to bring to the Panel's attention two new Ukrainian proceedings commenced by Storm LLC's 49.9% shareholder, Alpren Limited ("Alpren"), on grounds similar to those in the First E&Y Case:

- On January 31, 2007, without notice to Telenor Mobile, Alpren filed a claim in the Krasnolutsky District Court of Lugansk Region against E&Y, Kyivstar, Storm's General Director, Vadym Klymenko, and Trond Moe, the current head of Telenor Mobile's country office in Ukraine and the former Vice President and Chief

¹ Telenor Mobile also addressed issues relating to the First E&Y Case in its Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law submitted to the Panel on January 19, 2007.

Financial Officer of Kyivstar (the "Second E&Y Case"). The Krasnolutsky District Court issued an injunction dated January 31, 2007 similar in scope to the injunction issued in the First E&Y Case. That injunction remains in place and, to our knowledge, the underlying case remains active.

- On February 16, 2007, Alpren filed a claim in the Kyiv City Commercial Court that was similar to the claim it filed in the Second E&Y Case (the "Third E&Y Case" and, together with the First E&Y Case and the Second E&Y Case, collectively, the "E&Y Cases"). On February 21, 2007, the Kyiv City Commercial Court issued an injunction that, among other things, purports to enjoin Kyivstar, E&Y and "any other individuals or legal entities" from using "any information on [Kyivstar], including financial or other reports of [Kyivstar] ... in their consolidated financial statements." That injunction also remains in place, and the Third E&Y Case remains active.

As a result, it has not been possible for Kyivstar to have its financial records audited. There is no conceivable legitimate business reason for Storm or Alpren to attempt to prevent the audit of Kyivstar's financial results, and all three of these actions have been brought in violation of the parties' arbitration agreement and the preliminary injunction entered by Judge Lynch. Accordingly, Telenor Mobile has today applied to the US Federal District Court for the Southern District of New York, requesting that Storm, Alpren and Altimo Holdings & Investments Limited show cause as to why they should not be held in contempt of the Court's December 18, 2006 preliminary injunction.

I enclose for the Panel copies of Telenor Mobile's Order to Show Cause, accompanying memorandum of law, and the moving declarations of Oleksiy Didkovskiy, Thor Asbjørn Halvorsen and Robert L. Sills, and request that such declarations and their respective exhibits (which explain the circumstances surrounding the three E&Y Cases more fully) be made a part of the record in this proceeding.

Respectfully,

Robert L. Sills
